

Security Solutions for you

OUR COMPANY

Defend International is a Security and Training Company operating all over the UK and Overseas, with our head office in Coventry, West Midlands and offices in London. Our management team have vast experience in the security industry UK and all around the world ranging from ex military and police personnel.

Our primary role is to promote Security, safety and professional confidence for organizations and their staff by ensuring that we provide professional close protection officers, high value escorts, security, special event protection, backstage and front stage close protection /bodyguards, executive close protection, celebrity close protection, surveillance, counter surveillance.

PERSONAL

Providing reliable personal protection service to you and your family members where ever required at a moment's notice. increasing level of violence used in crimes such as robbery, racist intimidation and terrorism many individuals no longer feel safe within the confines of their home.

OUR SECURITY SOLUTIONS

- Identify potential areas of weakness
- Provide recommendations to enhance your current strategy
- Implement systems to assist those responsible for staff and customer
- Providing support at all levels

Professional Service at a Affordable Price

CLOSE PROTECTION

With the rise in terrorist, criminal and specific threats, then our close protection service offers a high level of security to an individual and their family. Our close protection officers integrate their duties into the daily pattern of each client and in addition to ensuring a safe working and living environment, they also continually assess the situation and procedures in place.

- Executive protection
- Corporate protection
- Residential protection
- Hostile protection

PRIVATE INVESTIGATION

If you are worried about your spouse or partner then our Matrimonial and Relationship investigations will help you achieve the peace of mind that you need. You may be having problems with your business in which case our Commercial and Corporate Investigations can help.

We can provide a range of services from employee theft to company fraud investigations all of which are discreet, effective and help you protect your business. We also offer a range of other services including process serving, electronic surveillance, background checks,

EVENT SECURITY

Our Event Security Services ensure all employees are trained to the highest standards with a wealth of experience working at high profile venues equipping them with the necessary skills and customer satisfaction focus to ensure the clients event is successful. Our clients and their guests should feel our employees have gone above and beyond their expectations to help them resolve any issues, queries or incidents.

CORPORATE

Our corporate services range from providing protection to corporate leaders, VIP's and one time executive drivers to long term personal protection services .

Responding 24 hours a day to both known and unforeseen threats enabling you to go about your everyday business.

RESIDENTIAL

Our professional Residential Security Teams can form an integral part of our Close Protection service, or can be provided to complement your existing detail, either way we offer reassurance for our principles about the safety of themselves, their family, assets and property.